COMMITTEE REPORTS

Dance Committee: David Rodgers, Chair Janis Grimes, Liaison

David Rodgers reported on Wednesday, August 16, Russ White was given $180.00. This money was from the sale of instructional DVDs.

Bob Lutz has been asked to order 25 additional instructional DVDs to be sold.

On Wednesday, September 13, our dance instructors will begin teaching lessons according to the revised dance instruction program. Three lessons will be taught each Wednesday night. Information about the revised dance instruction program will be in the September Shag Rag.

$111.64 was paid to Kinko's for printing new dance instructors' manual. The ninth edition of our instructor's manuals will be distributed to all NVSC dance instructors before September.

All twenty six dance instructors plan to attend the training workshop to be taught by Craig and Heather Jennings at the Falls Church VFW on October 1.

Janis Grimes reported on August 11, an email from promoters at Glen Echo was sent to the Metropolitan DC Dance Community soliciting proposals to increase the dance styles featured at Glen Echo. The Park currently hosts Contra and Square Dance, Waltz, Swing, Salsa, Blues, Cajan/Zydeco, International, Ballroom and family dances. They are interested in continuing and expanding the current dances presented as well as adding new styles.

Janis forwarded the memo to the Board, and to David Rodgers and Joan McKinney, as leaders of the Dance Committee, for comments and suggestions as to how the club could use this venue to promote the SHAG and NVSC in this area. Both David and Joan took time to read and analyze the proposal, and sent lengthy responses. Neither was in favor of pursuing this venue, as the promoters had given a short response time requirement for proposals for next year.

Janis contacted the promoters and suggested joining with a swing event at Glen Echo to showcase the shag and raise the profile of our club to the local dance community. This idea was met with enthusiasm and accepted. Janis and Steve Booth were invited to perform an exhibition of the shag on September 10th at a Sunday Blues workshop/dance in the Spanish Ballroom at Glen Echo Park. Note: Due to a leg injury, Janis was unable to dance, but at the last minute Vaughn Royal and Cathy Metcalf agreed to perform, and saved the day. Steve Booth also danced an exhibition with Cathy for the group. These performances brought Carolina Shag and the existence of our club before a new audience of dancers at Glen Echo.

Juniors: Terrie Patullo, Chair

National Shag Dance Championships Ad for John Tyson and Kari Jones – National Shag Dance team.

Kari is required to raise $900.00 to cover her National Team expenses....John Tyson must raise a separate $900.00., as well as Brenner Goree.

A half-page ad costs $125.00, and a full page is $250.00. The board decided to contribute two full page ads. One ad for Kari Jones and one for John Tyson.

- Motion to accept: Marcia Conway
- Seconded: Terrie Patullo
- In favor: Unanimous

Social Committee: (Russ White, Terrie Patullo, Debra Parrish, Cris Gaines, Linda Coffeen co chairs) No report.

Charity Fundraising: Marcia Conway, Chair

Marcia Conway sold eighteen $10.00 tickets for the SOS raffle on Fun Monday. The check has been mailed. The club can also sell copies of “Shagging in the Carolinas,” by Fessa John Hook to raise money. Bo Bryan author of “Shag, the dance legend,” has decided that the clubs should keep the books and instead of auctioning off on eBay, each club should determine the best way to sell their book. This can be done through club events, fundraisers, auction, etc. If someone bought the book for $100.00 then $30.00 will go to Bo Bryan and the remaining money will go to the Phil Sawyer Scholarship Fund. The check is to be made out to the SOS Charitable Foundation, and mailed to Allen Henry, ACSC Treasurer, 3849 Habersham Forest Drive, Jacksonville, Florida 32223 ashags@bellsouth.net

Note: Marcia Conway suggested a silent auction to be held at the October dance.

Public Relations: Michael Brown, Chair Janis Grimes, Liaison

There have been two recent articles in the Washington Post Magazine concerning local dance events. Janis Grimes contacted the author, Christine Ianzito, at partyanimal@washpost.com, inviting the author to check out our club at Rene's on Wednesday nights. There has been no response so far.

Communications: Janis Grimes, Chair
Newsletter Liz Kestler, Gary Salpini, Co-chairs No report.

Membership: Hilda Clemann
Total members: 325 as of September 10th.

2006 Capital Shag Classic: Larry Boyer, Linda Coffeen, Co-Chairs

Larry Boyer reported that final bills were in for the Classic and it appears that this year's Classic only cost the club $475.00, a very welcome improvement over past years.

Music: Linda Coffeen, chair

September 10th deejay – Jim Rose
September 20th deejay – Buddy Martin

- Holiday Party, Saturday, December 16th. Location has been changed to Ft Myer Community Center.

OLD BUSINESS

Tom Brett offered to reserve Ft. Myer Community Center for our Holiday Party. There were several dates available. We decided on Saturday, December 16th.

Cost: $450.00 for the first 3 hours, + $40.00 for each added hour; + $50.00 for kitchen use. As you know, we can bring our own food. They have changed their policy on alcohol and we are required to buy from them. Beer and wine can come from the base bowling alley (next door) and we can get a refund on any that is unused. A deposit of $100 is required. Tom will reserve the center and put up the deposit.

- Motion to hold the holiday party at Fort Myer on Dec. 16: Charlotte Ashby
- Seconded: Linda Coffeen
- In favor: Unanimous

NEW BUSINESS

- Terrie Patullo and Hilda Clemann are to serve on the Election Committee.
- Holiday Party – free of charge to members as in the past, or $5.00 cover charge to offset increased expense? This discussion was tabled.
- The theme for the 2007 SOS parade is “Baker’s Dozen.”
- The October 2nd board meeting will be at Hilda Clemann’s home
- Charlotte Ashby suggested the club’s application be changed to include a statement mentioning that we are a volunteer club and need all members to “volunteer,” in whatever capacity they are comfortable or have expertise in. Tabled for further discussion.
- There was discussion about a suggestion to change the name of the club’s SOS party from “Free Pour,” to “Northern Virginia Shag Club Party.” We discussed charging non-members $5.00 to attend, and they would buy drinks from the cash bar. Non-members would pay $5.00 to attend, and would buy their drinks from the bar. We also discussed possibly giving each member two tickets when they came in that would go toward buying two drinks, sodas, wines, beers, etc. After that, members would pay for their drinks at the cash bar.
- Motion to change SOS party name from “Free Pour” to NVSC party: Charlotte Ashby
- Seconded: Linda Coffeen
- In favor: Unanimous
