Northern Virginia Shag Club

Dedicated to the Preservation of the Carolina Shag and Beach Music

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE by Dave Bushey

Happy New Year! I hope everyone has had a wonderful holiday season. We all have so much to be thankful for – even those of us with sore knees, or worse.

Wow ! What a great Holiday Party in Kingstowne! Very special thanks go out to the leadership of Marcia Conway, our Shagger of the Year, for organizing the event and to everyone who came early / stayed late to help out. As much fun as we had, I do believe the four Marines had better times and showed us some special moves on the dance floor! I won't forget our circle around them and our singing of Lee Greenwood's 'God Bless The USA' to them. I'm Proud To Be An American!

Outgoing President Tim Farris recognized the 2011 Board of Directors and Committee Chairs, and each and every one of us should thank them personally for all of the time and the hard work that they've dedicated to NVSC. Did you see the recent Hello Shaggers that Vaughn Royal will be inducted into the Virginia Shaggers Hall of Fame this spring? I can't think of a higher achievement. Nor can I think of a more deserving person. Way to Go, Vaughn!

And now, it's time to get down to some serious shagging. Your new Board is excited about the coming year, and we've already had numerous discussions about the Calendar of Events. Be sure to mark your calendar for the 15th Anniversary Workshops with Charlie Womble and Jackie McGee at the Ft. Myer Community Center on Saturday, February 18th, 2012. There's a flyer on this event further along in the newsletter. We'll let you know of more events in the coming months.

The biggest news for NVSC is that, after several months of nomadic travels in search of a new, weekly dance venue, the 2011 Board chose, and the 2012 Board has agreed, to dance on Tuesdays at Icon's in Fairfax City. Icon's has over 2,500 sf of dance floor that has been especially cleaned for our use. We hope that our stay at Icon's will be for a while!

As has been said many times in the past, NVSC is a volunteer organization. We have eight Standing Committees – Audit, Dance, Music, Social & Hospitality, Charity & Fund Raising, Communications, Membership, Public Relations. We need volunteers to work in each of them. And then there's the ShagRag – are you a nascent author/reporter? And how about THE BIG summer event? Help is always needed on that. There are a myriad of tasks within each Committee. We hope that each one of you will volunteer your time and energy. It's what makes NVSC great!

Several years ago, David Rodgers wrote, "Let's all work together to welcome newcomers to our Club, introduce them to other people, help them to learn to dance the Carolina Shag, dance with them, encourage them to become NVSC members, and make them feel that they are included in our circle of friendship. Do you remember the first time you walked into the place where NVSC was dancing and didn't know anyone there? I do. I don't remember all the names and faces, but lots of NVSC members made me feel welcome that night, and that's the way every newcomer should feel after visiting with us." With his permission, I've re-printed this because he is so much more eloquent than I.

So, let's Shake, Rattle and Roll into 2012! We'll see you on the dance floor!

NOTICE: The first General Meeting for 2012 will be January 24, 2012, after the lessons.

CONGRATULATIONS TO VAUGHN ROYAL

Submitted by Joan McKinney

Vaughn Royal's soon-to-be induction into the Virginia Shaggers Hall of Fame is a logical and well-deserved recognition for someone who's always made a place in his life for music and dance. He will officially join the Hall at an induction ceremony in Virginia Beach in March.

Six new members are inducted every year. Larry and Cindy Black of Virginia Beach also will be inducted in the Class of 2012. They have longtime ties to our club, including as DJs at NVSC events. According to its bylaws, the Virginia Shaggers Hall of Fame recognizes people who "have contributed to the dance known in Virginia as 'Beach Swing or Shag'." That contribution is defined as "expanding, refining and continuing.... and promoting the continued existence" of that dance in Virginia. Members must be at least 50 years old, must reside in Virginia at the time they're nominated to the Hall, and must be nominated and elected by the Hall of Fame membership.

Other members of the Hall who are NVSC members or former members, or who have been guest instructors or regular participants at our club are Janis Grimes, Steve Booth, Joan McKinney, Vesta Denning, Rick Hendrix, Larry Boyer, Joan and Kevin Byrnes, Rodger Woodson, Tom Edwards, Jan Weakley and Earl and Beverly Robinson.

Vaughn grew up in Michigan. Music was always in the house. His mother taught piano. Both parents sang in a church choir. From 5th grade through college, Vaughn played the alto saxophone. He no longer plays – although he probably could, except for the matter of living in an apartment. The alto sax, he says, "is not really something for communal living." At about age 7 or 8, his parents enrolled Vaughn in tap dance classes, "which is something I did badly until 14 or 15. There were not many boys my age who did that. In fact, there were not many boys my age dancing at all, so I guess, from a social aspect, it was probably better tap dancing than ballet."

Perhaps mercifully, tap dance gave way to education and professional life. Vaughn graduated from Kalamazoo College (spending one undergraduate year in a foreign studies program in France) and then from the University of Michigan law school. For most of the past 30 years, he's been a solo practitioner, specializing in real estate law, small business matters and wills and probate. He's also done bankruptcy and family law.

Luckily for the NVSC, the next dance that Vaughn did badly (at first) was shag. Now a lawyer in our area, he came to a club workshop at Blackie's in Springfield. To the best of his recollection, the Pro Instructors were John and Joanne English, from Charleston, SC. "I was challenged by how difficult it was that first day. I was challenged because I was doing it so badly." But he also liked the dance, and "I just wasn't willing to let it go."

Being un-willing to give up on shag doesn't come close to expressing the tenacity Vaughn brought to his pursuit of our dance. He took all the NVSC classes, at the club and at NVSC pro-instructor workshops. He traveled to other clubs' events and took their pro-instructor workshops. He took the workshops at SOS. He booked himself into private classes with the top shaggers. And he practiced. A lot.

Today, with his partner Cathy Metcalf, Vaughn has won the Smoothies Contest at SOS, made it to the finals in the Non-Pro Division of the National Shag Dance Championships, placed in Non-Pro at the USA Grand Nationals Dance Championship, and regularly places high in the Amateur Division on the Competitive Shag Association circuit.

Along the way, Vaughn has become one of the most loyal and constant instructors in the NVSC dance program (he is currently our Dance Committee chairman), giving away for free what he has learned through a huge investment of time and money.

Today, Vaughn dances shag on three levels, and each level has a different feel for him and a different approach or goal. "As an instructor, it's to try to share the dance and the enjoyment of the dance with as many people as possible who're interested in learning it. As a competitor, I suppose it's to push myself to personal improvement." On the social dance floor, "it's just to enjoy the dance in the moment, to enjoy the dance with who ever I happen to be dancing with at that moment."
