VA Beach Shag Club -- Sunday Social

By Donna Harrington

On Sunday, March 6th, several of our members attended the Sunday Social presented by the Virginia Beach Shag Club. This event takes place at "Steppin Out" on the first Sunday of each month.

Starting at 3:30 p.m., beginner shag lessons were given by Pete and Fran. It was good to be able to review and practice a correct Basic Step. We were reminded how important proper execution of the Basic is to the entire "art" of Shagging.

The instructors followed with an Intermediate level lesson which featured the "Fantasy," a step some of us had seen at the ACSC Workshop in Greensboro, NC, Feb. 18-20. Hopefully, we learned it well enough to share with the rest of our Club members.

At the conclusion of lessons we were treated to a buffet dinner and a great evening of dancing to our favorite beach music tunes.

I think we're already looking forward to the next Sunday Social in Virginia Beach!

New Shag Headquarters

The search is on! Nick Nichols is presently looking for a new location for us to meet each week for beach music, dancing and fun.

Any ideas and suggestions about a new place to dance should be submitted to Nick, who will do the footwork.

MID WINTER

By Donna Harrington

Although the ACSC Midwinter Weekend was officially held from Friday, Feb. 14 through Sunday, Feb. 16th, there was already a great crowd of shaggers in the O.D. area of N. Myrtle Beach when Pauline and I arrived on Thursday, Feb. 13th.

Frigid temperatures didn't keep some 4,000 dancers from enjoying Beach Music at The "Spanish Galleon," "The Pad," "Duck's" and "Fat Harold's." Hotels in the area said it was the largest attendance they had ever experienced at a Mid Winter Weekend. (Our hotel, the Bel Aire, was filled to capacity and people were still calling "begging" for reservations.)

There were definitely a lot of "pro's" on the dance floor, including Jackie McGee and Charlie Womble, who gave free demonstrations, but they all made even neophyte shaggers, like us, feel comfortable and competent. We danced a lot and learned that a good, smooth basic and a willingness to learn always assured more dance partners.

We saw many familiar faces from the Virginia Beach and Richmond Shag Clubs as well as from Portsmouth's Boogie on the Bay Club, and met new dancers from the large groups from Charlotte, NC and Atlanta, GA.

To show their appreciation to the ACSC organization and its members both "Ducks" and "Fat Harold's" hosted free cocktail hours and a lavish dinner buffet on Saturday evening. From hors d'oeuvres to dessert everything was First Class!

Following complimentary free pours and Continental Breakfast on Sunday, tired shaggers packed and headed home. Thanks to President Joe McGee for his fantastic party.

We hope more NOVA Shag Club members will be able to attend one of these fabulous functions soon!

Happy Birthday!
