Keep on Shaggin'

March 1995

From the President - By Charlie Price

Dear Members:

As I hope each of you is aware by now, as of Wednesday, February 15th, our Club moved to Deja Vu at 6710 Commerce Street in Springfield. (For those who don't know, Deja Vu is under the same roof, and on the other side of Blackie's, the well known country western dance location in Springfield.) So, from now on we will meet every Wednesday from 7:30-11 p.m., at DEJA VU!! Call them at 703-971-4200 if you need directions.

Change is never easy. I guess that all of us on the Board lost more than a little sleep over this, but we believe that it is important to keep Wednesdays as our Club's meeting night. Due to a management decision at the Juke Box Cafe, we simply could not do that and stay there.

Despite the cold and rainy weather, a really good crowd turned out for our first night at Deja Vu and, with Janis and Rick helping the DJ, we all had a great time. So, if you are reading this and you haven't been to Deja Vu yet -- "come on down!" There's a great wooden dance floor that's at least three times the size of our old floor, non-stop Beach Music, a good bar, and lots and lots of your Shaggin' friends.. I can't think of a better way to spend a Wednesday night, can you?

On another note, I want to take this opportunity to publicly acknowledge and thank SHARON SALPINI for her dedicated work in heading up the Club's Membership Committee last year (in fact, I think Sharon was the "committee"). Week after week, without recognition or acknowledgment, she was always there at the Juke Box Cafe, tirelessly recruiting new members. So, the next time you see Sharon, take a minute to tell her that you appreciate her work. It is because of members like Sharon that your Club is what it is today.

KEEP ON SHAGGIN', AND SEE YOU AT DEJA VU!

DON'T BELIEVE
WHAT YOU READ LAST MONTH!
We're Still Dancing on Wednesday Nights,
But We Have Changed Our Location

NVSC HAS A NEW HOME

NVSC will not change our dance night to Tuesdays -- we will continue Shaggin' every Wednesday night, with FREE LESSONS at 7:30 p.m. -- at DEJA VU (at BLACKIE'S, 6710 Commerce Street in Springfield) starting February 15th. (From I-95, take Exit Franconia East; Left at first light on Commerce St., Blackie's is on the Right.)

DEJA VU will allow us to permanently hang our banner there as the Home of the Northern Virginia Shag Club -- and the larger space and wooden dance floor gives us an environment that will encourage the continued growth of our Club.

Our Beach Music play list is already long enough to last all night, and it will keep growing, too! There will be a $2 per person cover charge at the door, which is not a lot to pay for so much fun..... SEE YOU THERE!!

The Roving Shag Reporter . . .

Neither rain nor sleet, snow nor cold of night can deter Northern Virginia Shaggers who want to dance. It was the first Shag night at our new location, Deja Vu, at Blackie's of Springfield.....

I watched as Rick somersaulted in. Larry Camp pole-vaulted in. Eddy Farmer broke down the door coming in. Janis flew in on a magic carpet. Donna narrowly escaped a five-car pile-up in the parking lot. Chris and Bill were too cool . . . not revealing the Drive From Hell they had just endured. Ron and Donna tripped over each other and fell to the floor trying to beat the other through the doorway. Big John's clothes were torn and tussled when he arrived, looking as if he'd been caught in a dog fight. Valerie tumbled in with hair a'muss. Gary and Sharon came, looking cool also, but showing no apparent signs of serious ill effect. Courageous Barry braved the weather -- weakened, but still dancin'. Howard beamed in via satellite from Stafford. Debbie and Nick arrived via Internet -- both looking marvelous; Nick didn't have time to shave. Jerry wasn't there (his son wouldn't give him permission to leave the house....). Fortunately, H.K. and A.J. were released in time to make it (from work, of course). John and Pauline waltzed in saying, "What's the fuss ..... it's only mush!"

In his zeal, Charlie spun Pat, his dance partner, in the pivot so fast that her legs lifted off the floor. And the DJ kept the Beach Music going! In fact, the music reverberated through the walls. The walls wavered, but stayed upright. No serious harm done . . . only a strange look in the eyes of those who heard the beat and wandered in. Actually, it was those very same vibratory strains of wild and enchanting chords of music that propelled Steve Adams and Jim Raney to Deja Vu that night (or was it the full moon?).

WORKSHOP NEWS - By Charlie Price

Saturday, Feb. 11th, saw a fabulous WORKSHOP given at the Juke Box Cafe by LARRY and SHIRLEY JONES of the Richmond Shag Club. We always knew they were great dancers, and now we know they are also great teachers. No wonder there are so many good Shaggers in the Richmond Club! Larry and Shirley went over the Basics -- which we all need to brush up on from time to time -- and then taught some male leads, including a new (at least for us) version of the pivot, starting from crossed hands to an over-the-head drape into the pivot, with a little move at the end that words can't describe. Suffice it to say, it is a great move. We all had a great time, teachers and students alike; and, speaking at least for myself, I can't wait for Larry and Shirley to come back. MANY THANKS also to RICK HENDRIX for arranging this very productive workshop!!

Later that night, Larry and Shirley and several of our fellow Club members partied into the wee hours at Checkers Lounge. We brought our own Beach Music, took over the floor, and dance, dance, danced until closing time.

FYI, LARRY and SHIRLEY will compete in the National Shag Competitions in Myrtle Beach this month. We wish them all the best, and some of us hope to be there cheering for them.

Speaking of Parties . . .

The very next night (Sunday), several of our indefatigable members piled into John's van and headed for Richmond to sell some of our Raffle tickets, and then boogie-walked over to the nearby Holiday Inn Ballroom (upstairs from Visions Lounge) to Shag and party the night away listening to Band of Oz. John, Pauline, Janis, Charlie, Jim, Eddy and Valerie saw lots of friends from the Richmond Shag Club, and we had a ball! Some of us lost our hearing for awhile, but we all arrived back home tired, but with happy feet. What a weekend!

This month, the legendary BILL DEAL will play there on Sunday, March 12th; and, on April 9th, plan on seeing and dancing to THE EMBERS!! The charge for these dances is just $5 per person. SEE YOU THERE!

SHAG MUSIC AND ITS ICONS Godfather of R&B: Johnny Otis By Steve Booth

Somewhere in Southern California there is a semi-retired gentleman of Greek descent who dabbles in the organic food industry, radio and occasionally, music. He is 73 and his name is Johnny Veliotis. Raised in Berkeley, he lived among black folks and absorbed much of their culture, of course music being at the fore-front. He played drums in Swing bands and toured the Southwest. From the late 30's through 1960,

JOHNNY OTIS

Robins, who evolved into the Coasters. Recording contracts soon followed with Modern and Savoy records starting in 1949. At this juncture, Otis's influence on R&B became immeasurable. His early discoveries included no less than Etta James and Little Esther Phillips. The string of hits on Savoy with this growing stable of stars led to the Johnny Otis with his name Anglicized to Johnny Otis, he was the West Coast mover and shaker for the exploding Rhythm & Blues phenomenon. Otis's talents covered every facet of the music industry: producer, composer (Roll With Me, Henry 1954; Every Beat Of My Heart 1961), band leader. On top of that, Otis is a drummer, pianist, vibraphonist and singer.

Somewhere in Southern California there is a semi-retired gentleman of Greek descent ... He is 73 and his name is Johnny Veliotis.

Like the average reader, I had never heard of Johnny Otis (although I had heard of Shuggie Otis, his son, a guitarist of some note in my late 60's musician days) until I started researching R&B/Shag music history. This man's resumé is simply astounding. His orchestra recorded the original Harlem Nocturne in 1945. As Swing orchestras faded in the late 40's, Otis anticipated the change with the formation of a small, Louis Jordan-type combo to be the house band in his club "The Barrel House" in Watts. The talent contests at this club were legendary, with discoveries such as Mel Walker and the Caravan. Well, you ask, What does this have to do with Shagging and our lifestyle?

In a recent interview with Gene Laughter, S.O.S. founder and certified early fifties O.D. Lifeguard/Beach Bum ... he made a statement that "music was the glue that held the O.D./Beach lifestyle together".

Just about everything. In a recent interview with Gene Laughter, S.O.S. founder and certified early fifties O.D. Lifeguard/Beach Bum, I asked Gene about his favorite artists of the era. He prefaced the list with the statement that "music was the glue that held the O.D./Beach lifestyle together". At the top of his fave list was Wynonie Harris, whose 1948 (!) hit (written by Roy Brown) Good Rockin' Tonight started the "Rock 'N' Roll" double entendre craze in early R&B. Not only can Good Rockin' Tonight still be heard (in the Solomon Burke version) at any Shag Throwdown, but Wynonie Harris was one of the early stars of Otis's Caravan show. But the list of superstars on the rise in the early 50's goes on: Willi Mae "Big Mama"

Thornton (Hound Dog, Let Your Tears Fall, Baby), Jackie Wilson, Hank Ballard, Johnny Ace, Charles Brown (Please Come Home For Christmas - the greatest Christmas R&B Tune). Otis's inclusion of these legends on his shows either enhanced their stardom or created their stardom through resulting recording contracts. The proliferation of authentic R&B outside of the great Southeast in the mid-50's is in part due to talents such as Johnny Otis, who knew the "real goods" when he heard it. Otis, himself, scored massively in 1958 with Willie And The Hand Jive, with its pounding, reverbed "Bo Diddley" beat of West African derivation. Next time you're on the dance floor pivoting to Etta James, Boogie Walking to Lonely Teardrops or Belly Rolling to Open Up The Back Door, thank Johnny Otis for his part in creating Rhythm & Blues - and our lifestyle.

Johnny Otis still has a radio show and recorded as recently as 1981.
