Keep on Shagging'

Vol. VI, No 5

OH YEAH!!! HERE WE GO AGAIN! by Vesta Jones

Northern Virginia Shag Club sweeps Spring SOS events... our "Marching Troop" in the Parade won first place (AGAIN)... Beverly Jones and Earl Robinson won first place in the Smoothies Contest... we don't know yet where we placed in sales in the SOS Company Store, but at the very least we had a great time, supported the SOS and met neat new people...

Our NVSC people are once again wowing (is that a word?) me... Joan McKinney's idea for the parade (NVSC Salutes the OD Clubs) was truly a winner... Val Swiger's ability to pull it all together and actually bring it to fruition just confirmed her incredible management abilities... the pirates, Bob Lutz and Jim Harley, were so colorful that they attracted a television crew... and Andrea Crews duck costumes for Roy and Bonnie to represent "Ducks" was ingenious, clever and funny as hell... I can hardly wait for Kenwood Country Club and the Fairfax County Police to see Roy and Bonnie in orange tights, yellow webbed feet and duck bills (not to mention white duck bodies with feathers, wings and... duck-butts)...

And then... all those "SOS Moments" ... a great DJ and wonderful shag music by the Tilghman pool with the ocean beside us, the temperature was warm but not hot, the sky clear and blue... and some wonderful human being from Little River NC passing a crab-pot filled to the brim with huge strawberries that had soaked all night in Cointreau and Vodka... new friends from Charlotte and Virginia Beach...

And the DANCING! Shaggers from Charlotte, Atlanta, Rock Hill, Birmingham, Columbia, Albemarle, Raleigh ... oh my god... all different all the same all wonderful... and the dee jays... our guys, Craig and Larry (the "Shooter Dudes") with their great tunes at the Grill and their wonderfully expressive, tasteful shirts... and Hollis Britt teaching us new steps and Sherry Winters' friend John teaching us the "scissors"... (I call it the Johnny-scissors-foot)...

Enjoying fellowship and fun with Val at her traditional Friday-4:00-6:00 party at her condo... and the Dave and Ruth Rapson post-parade celebration... comparing belly-roll notes with girlfriends... practicing new steps in the condo in hot rollers and oversized tee shirts... pivoting with one of your very favorite partners... I gotta stop... gotta go rub my feet and drink some iced tea... and put on a shag CD... and think about all my NVSC friends and all the others... and count my blessings... how 'bout you?

RESERVE Saturday night JUNE 12 for SHAGGING

by Joan McKinney

We've got two great options.

The RICHMOND SHAG CLUB has it's annual party that weekend. Our friends in Richmond sponsored the NVSC for membership in the ACSC and have sent many of their talented shaggers to help us polish our style.

If you're not in Richmond, plan to help the Dance Committee SHOWCASE THE SHAG at the FAIRFAX COUNTY FAIR. We'll have a stage at the food court at prime time -- 7:30 PM -- and we need a good turnout of dancers to help show off our dance and our club.

WANTED: Lots of volunteers! by Heather Jennings

Well, it's almost that time of year again!! The 4th Annual Capital Shag Classic, July 23-25, is just around the corner and planning has already begun!

Volunteers are needed to help with all aspects of Hospitality, both the check-in table and the Hospitality room on Friday and Saturday nights.

Also, for those who may not know, the Northern Virginia Shag Club owns its own dance floor which is used during the Classic. This floor must be put down on Thursday night (July 22) in preparation for the weekend event and then taken apart and loaded back up for storage on Sunday. (July 25) We are in need of volunteers (big, strong ones are good, but all help is accepted!!) to help with the floor assembly/disassembly.

If you're interested in helping with Hospitality please contact David Rodgers at 703-239-8978. If you'd like to help with the dance floor, please contact Gary Salpini at 703-425-2848. Thanks again and see you shaggin'!

Do you have a favorite song? Ask your DJ to play it. If you hear a song you really like and may want to request it, sometime in the future, go up to the DJ booth and ask the song title. Our DJ's are always interested in hearing from you and will do their best to play the songs you request.

I've been gathering a lot of nice, but undue, credit for our First Place finish in the SOS parade... True, I had an idea that dressing up as the names of the Ocean Drive clubs might be a winner,... but then had zero time to contribute. So, Valerie Swiger and Andrea Crews took over and made the concept come to life: Valerie with her customary organizing skills. And Andrea Crews with an inventive, creative design for the Ducks (Roy Camp and Bonnie Mahoney, accompanied by little ducks -- that is, the Duck's Too -- (Amy Hardison, Vesta Jones and myself). Plus, Val figured out how to build the walking Pinball Machine (Gerry Scott inside, saluting the The Pavilion) and also contributed the spectacular idea for a giant Walking Hamburger (Larry Camp, accompanied by Chef Mary Camp) to salute the Boulevard Grill. Pamela Alfano did the Pinball Machine art work. The old walking Jukebox (a Pauline Easby-Smith creation) was recycled, and Craig Jennings got stuck inside to it to salute The OD Arcade. Pauline stuck herself inside a big foam walking Barrel .. and appeared to be wearing nothing else BUT the barrel. That was a crowd pleasure.. Bob Lutz was "Shaking a Tail Feather" the entire parade... Actually, it was the parrot with the red tail, perched on Bob's shoulder. Bob and the darkly dashing Jim Harley (he gave himself a Swarthy Bearded Look) were our pirates, saluting The Spanish Galleon and Pirate's Cove. It's quite amazing what happens to some people when they put on a costume. An entirely new persona emerges. Dennis Heath (our rather quite member from Florida) became a booming voiced, jovial Fat Harold, inviting every woman on the parade route to "my place" for "drinks on the house." Not to mention the quacking, wing-flapping Duck Bonnie, who duck-bill kissed several police officers... most of whom seemed to like it. (We are planning to inform the North Myrtle Beach Police Department of the amorous duck's true identity. Bonnie's an officer with the Fairfax County Police.) Audrey Borja choreographed the front-line sign carriers (Roseanne Woodroff, Shirley Jones and Don Borja), so that they actually marched in step some of the time. Gregory Owens, Cynthia Trueheart and Gaye Proctor were another sign cluster, reminding people that this was the Northern Virginia Shag Club. We had other sign carriers ... (David and Jerry Rodgers, Heather Jennings, Liz Kestler, Simon Shupak, Lou Toler, Sandra Feroni, Ron Maierhofer, Rita Perrotti... to identify the clubs and characters in the parade. Two sweet moments: a little girl ran out into the street to hug the ducks, and another little girl wanted one of our rubber duckbill noses. She went off flapping her arms and saying "quack-quack".
