Keep on Shagging'

Vol. VII, No 1

January President's Message by Joan Mckinney

I'm not officially your president until January 10th, the next Board meeting. That's my story, anyway, and it means I can stretch out something that we Washington-area folks experience close-up with every change of administrations: the Transition.

I've been using my Transition to ponder the implications of this historic shag club election. You do realize, don't you, that you've committed history: elected the Northern Virginia Shag Club's first married president. This is precedent-making stuff. ... Not the presidency. We've done THAT before. I speak, of course, of the shag club's first First Spouse. Completely uncharted waters. Virgin territory. (Actually, no one's accused Dallas of virginity in a very long time.... But I digress.)

So. I've really been struggling with how to define the first First Spouse's duties. The role models are not helpful. I'd settled on the Nancy Reagan model: fixed gaze of adoration in the direction of the president. But when I floated that past Dallas, the return gaze fell somewhat short of adoring.... Dallas would look dippy in the Rosalynn Carter big-bow blouse (actually, she looked kinda dippy in it); and while he'll tolerate the occasional other-man shag partner, Big Dal's just not inclined toward Hillary's particular brand of marital generosity..... Possibly, just possibly, Dallas is our Betty Ford. She is a dancer, and at least she used to drink.

Finally I asked Dal: how DO we define your role?. And he said (and this is a true quote): "Why don't you just finish your term, and we'll see how I did?" That's what FDR had in mind when he said that, in any crisis, America is saved by the calm of its people, and their sense of humor. Perspective, it's called. Dallas has it. He sometimes applies it to the NVSC. It's Dallas' "You People" rule.

In the past few years, Dallas regularly has surrendered his living room to Board meetings and his dining room to shag lessons... sensibly removing himself to the TV room and a cold beer. And when the Board meetings edge toward midnight, and the shag lessons turn into demonstrations of 22 different ways to execute the Pivot, Dallas emerges from the TV room to apply the You People Rule. He says: "You people are taking this w-a-a-a-y too serious." Which the first First Spouse absolutely will not do. He will not take the shag seriously. It offends his sense of what the dance is all about... which means that he will help me remember what the NVSC is all about: our music, our dance, our friendships.

So congratulate yourselves on a presidential selection that's at least half right. While the president has her flaws, the First Spouse is supremely qualified. ... Now let me close my first president's letter on a couple of serious notes. I very much appreciate your votes, and please participate generously in our 50/50s because Dallas will be running for the Senate in New York.

IT WAS A WONDERFUL PARTY!

by Betty Abshire, Hospitality Chairman

Anyone that did not attend our Christmas party missed a GREAT time. The food was WONDERFUL, the music HOT and the crowd full of energy. We had 106 who got in free, 10 paying guests and the DJ & his assistant. The success of the party is directly related to the contributions of our members. The dishes were almost too numerous to sample all - thanks to all of you who contributed. The most inspirational thanks goes to Linda Silbaugh and her decorating committee - they transformed an "ugly duckling into a swan". A special thanks to Cris & Jeff Gaines who arrived early and took on the set-up for the bar and food table. They were assisted by Gini & Mike Fortunato and Linda & Chuck McAndrew as well as several others. It is wonderful to see new members jumping in to help. Little do they know that once we realize they are willing to help as well as being very capable, that we will be asking them again & again.

It is recommended that you mark your calendar for the second Saturday in December 2000, that is the date of our next Christmas party, come join in the fun.

RETIREMENT through the eyes of a Child

After spring break, a teacher asked her young pupils how they spent the holidays. One child wrote the following:

We always use to spend the holidays with Grandma and Grandpa. They used to live here in a big brick house, but Grandpa got retarded and they moved to Arizona. Now they live in a place with a lot of other retarded people. They live in a tin box and have tricycles and wear name tags because they don't know who they are anymore. They go to a building called a wrecked center, but they must have got it fixed, because it is all right now. They play games and do exercises there, but they don't do them very well. There is a swimming pool too, buy they all jump up and down in it with their hats on. I guess they don't know how to swim.

At their gate is a doll house with a little old man sitting in it. He watches all day so nobody can escape. Sometimes they sneak out. Then they go cruising in their golf carts. My Grandma used to bake cookies and stuff, but I guess she forgot how. Nobody there cooks, they just eat out. And they eat the same thing every night, Early - Birds. Some people can't get past the man in the doll house to go out. So the ones who do get out bring food back to the wrecked center and call it pot luck. My Grandma says my Grandpa worked all his life to earn his retardment and says I should work hard so I can be retarded some day too.

When I earn my retardment I want to be the man in the doll house. Then I will let people out so they can visit their grandchildren.

2nd Annual NVSC Shag-A-Thon! by Vesta Jones

On February 12th, at Landmark Shopping Center, the Northern Virginia Shag Club will sponsor the second annual Shag-A-Thon! The primary purpose of this event is to raise money for the club's charity, the Hospice of Northern Virginia, however by sponsoring the event at Landmark Shopping Center, we also hope to promote the dance we love and attract new members to the shag club.

So, how does this Shag-A-Thon work? First- sign up. Vesta has the sign up sheets, they are available each Wednesday. After signing up, you will receive a pledge sheet. Take the pledge sheet to as many friends, family and co-workers as possible and ask them to "sponsor" you for this event. By sponsoring you, they agree to pay a certain amount for each dance you have during the event or they may choose to make a flat donation. (This is not an endurance event--you may dance as many or as few dances as you like.) Have each sponsor fill out the pledge sheet with their name, address, and pledge amounts. Please try and get as many pledges as possible!

On the day of the event, bring your pledge sheet and your dancing shoes and dance, dance, dance. This event raised over $8000.00 for the Hospice of Northern Virginia last year and we hope to raise even more this year. If you can't dance that day, come by and cheer your fellow dancers on.

If you are interested in participating in this event, contact Vesta Jones at 301-765-0995 or vjones@olg.com.

NICK'S NOT JUST A PLACE TO DANCE

Have you tried the burgers at Nick's? Or the salads? Or the chicken fingers? Just a reminder that before or after you take those Shag Lessons on Wednesday night you can get a good meal at a reasonable price at Nick's. And don't forget to tip. The servers work hard dodging us dancers to get us our orders. Have you ever thought about how hard it is to keep all the tabs straight when we are constantly on and off the dance floor and moving from table to table to talk?
