Keep on Shagging'

Vol. VIII, No 2

President's Message by Heather Jennings

Brrr!!!! It's been a cold winter so far in the Washington area this year, but luckily we've had lots of HOT shag events to keep us moving. First and foremost, thanks again to David & Jerry Rodgers for hosting Charlie & Jackie in their home for our first annual shag workshop of 2001. As usual, they were wonderful hosts! I'd also like to thank all the volunteers that helped David & Jerry answer the phone, watch the door, transport Charlie & Jackie, bring them lunch/dinner or whatever else was needed! Everyone was wonderful!!!

As far as I could tell, everyone thoroughly enjoyed both the workshop (thank you Janis Grimes for again planning a fabulous workshop) and the dance. Saturday night, over 150 folks danced to the fabulous music of our guest DJ Joanne Johnson and enjoyed Betty Abshire's famous food spread! Thanks to all the volunteers that worked with Betty in making our party such a success!

As if the Charlie & Jackie workshop wasn't enough, some hardy souls headed on down to North Myrtle Beach, SC (the HOME of the shag!) for more dancing at Mid-Winter, January 18-21. There were several club members in attendance including myself and the first spouse, Pamela Alfano, Roger Woodson, Vaughn Royal, H.K. Lee, Vesta Jones, Pauline Easby-Smith, Rita Perrotti, Melody Wayland, Susan Bane, Jewell Pradier, Jimmy Harley, Marjorie King, and Mike Edmonston. (If you were there and I didn't see you, I apologize!!!) Watching Jewell, who was a North Myrtle "newbie", had to be the highlight of the weekend though! She was filled with the same awe and sheer exhilaration we all are during our first trip to the beach! Jewell your face must have hurt by Sunday from all that smiling!!!

Last, but not least, NVSC members had SEVERAL options to choose from the last weekend in January. Four adult NVSC members, Craig & Heather Jennings and Earl & Beverly Robinson and three juniors, Kari Jones and Ben & Tory Robinette danced at the National Shag Dance Championships - Preliminaries in Myrtle Beach. Some folks headed on down to cheer them on! Others headed on down to Virginia Beach to see two of our own members, Janis Grimes and Rodger Woodson be inducted into the Virginia Shag Hall of Fame. (Congratulations!) Yet others decided to stay closer to home and either see the band "Hardway Connection" play at Jaxx in Springfield or pop on over and dance at the MD VA DC Hand Dance Association dance at the Riverdale Elks lodge. Whatever your fancy, I hope you had an enjoyable January shaggin' your weekends away!

Looking into February, don't forget about our annual Shag-a-thon to raise money for Hospice. This year it will be Feb. 10 at Landmark Mall. See Jeff Kincheloe our 2001 Shag-a-thon chair, to register. Our goal is $20,000 this year so don't delay! We also have a SUNDAY SOCIAL planned for February 18 in the back room of Nick's. We'll be having a FREE pour, $1 hot dogs, an advanced shag lesson and a guest DJ: Jerry Canada!

This is a FREE benefit to NVSC members so come on by and shag away your Sunday afternoon! Hope to see you there!

Shag A Thon

by Jeff Kincheloe

Our third annual Shag-A-Thon for Hospice is scheduled for Saturday, February 10, 2001, from 12:00 Noon to 5:00 PM at the Landmark Mall in Alexandria, Virginia. This year's Shag-A-Thon, coming as it does just before Valentine's Day, will have a Valentine's theme. The idea behind the dance is to obtain a pledge of support for Hospice of Northern Virginia for each dance that you do or a flat amount in honor of your participation in the event. Checks are made out directly to Hospice of Northern Virginia (they have recently opened branches in Washington and suburban Maryland also).

This is a marvelous opportunity to share with your friends, family, coworkers and others your passion for our dance while raising money for a worthy cause. Last year was a dream come true for me. With a little sign on my back indicating that I was dancing for over $50 a dance, I had women lining up to dance with me to ensure the maximum contribution to Hospice. Hey, as a shy person, I'll take any help I can get! My reward for raising the most money is I get to chair the event this year, which actually has been a fun assignment thus far.

At the recent wedding of a nephew, I had several people say that I was a real inspiration for everyone at the dances that preceded and followed the wedding. This amazed me since in comparison with many of you, I would consider myself somewhat of a novice. It also made me realize what a small group we dance enthusiasts are. I know there is a deep yearning out there amongst everyone to dance, so the Shag-A-Thon is a great opportunity to expand our circle of dancers. As we teach others this dance we love, our own enjoyment is greatly magnified. My 85-year-old aunt took some dance classes after her husband died. She said one of her biggest regrets was she and her husband never danced because he refused to dance. I feel a particular mission to get the guys off their commonly held position that they can't dance.

I had lunch recently with the President of Hospice of Northern Virginia who pledged to encourage greater participation from their employees, volunteers, and supporters. I am coming across more and more families these days that have been deeply touched by the experience of having a family member cared for by hospice.

In talking with some of you, I find that the biggest barrier to participation is embarrassment about asking for money. I want to reassure you that if done respectfully and without pressure, asking for money for a worthy cause can be a very intimate, enlivening, and fulfilling experience for both the one who asks and the one who gives. While asking for Shag-A-Thon contributions last year I often found myself being invited into some wonderful conversations about dancing and hospice. Sometimes I've even done some impromptu talks on the origins of shag ("when the jitterbug met rhythm and blues" according to the Smithsonian magazine) and coaching on the basic shag step.
