Northern Virginia Shag Club's Newsletter—September Edition

President's Message by Janis Grimes

President's Letter... by Janis Grimes

It is time, almost time, for SOS!!! Fall Migration, here we come..... back to The Beach, to party, party and dance, dance, dance until our feet and legs give out. If you have never been to SOS, you'd better make plans NOW, and get to North Myrtle Beach sometime between September 16-25..... Ask members about SOS, because if you're not there, you'll miss a very large time. NVSC will host a FREE POUR for members on SUNDAY, Sept. 18th, 4:00 p.m. in the back room at Fat Harold's..... be there, or miss out.

Actually, for those who cannot be at SOS, your board has a SURPRISE for you!! On Wednesday night, Sept. 21st, at Rene's, your club is treating members to ONE FREE DRINK (for members only)... for those who are unable to be with us at SOS.. Use your red ticket to redeem your drink at the bar. Also, thanks for remembering to TIP the bartender and the waitresses... they are working hard, trying to make a living.

It is also time, believe it or not, to start thinking about the next election of your board and officers. Would YOU be interested in serving as an officer or board member of your club? Please give this some serious thought... we need new energy on the board, and your club needs you -- all of this fun cannot happen without YOU!

 Looking back at the summer, which has zoomed by, we have had a wonderful time at our Margaritaville party, the Capital Shag Classic, the Saturday Shag Dances, and our annual picnic. Many thanks to Darleen Small for graciously opening her fabulous home to our members, for a wonderful day of fun with old friends and new friends, good food, and swimming for the brave in the beautiful pool... and dancing to great music inside and out by our deejays Dennis and Nancy Gehley, and Jim Rose.  It just doesn't get any better than this, folks!! Special thanks to Terrie Patullo, assisted by Debra Parrish and Russ White, for orchestrating another fabulous spread of delicious food... topped off by chocolate!

Looking forward, we are excited to have Pro CSA shaggers William Greene and Leslie Melton coming to teach workshops and dance with us on Saturday, Oct. 22nd, at the Elan DanceSport (formerly known as the Virginia Ballroom), in Merrifield, VA. PUT IT ON YOUR CALENDAR NOW.... You really don't want to miss this!!  If you are interested in private lessons from William and Leslie, please contact David Rodgers at 703-239-8978, or rodgersd3@cox.net

BEACH & SHAG DJ'ING FOR DUMMIES - 10 EASY STEPS

- STEP ONE: Buy the Beach Music Anthology Box Set. Just get the first box; six CD's should be enough for any function.
- STEP TWO: Buy a big Boom Box with speakers that can be moved 2-3 feet away from the box. This makes your setup look bigger. Don't bother buying a back up, they never go down.
- STEP THREE: Buy a really cheap pair of headphones. Broken ones that someone is throwing away will work since you never have to use them. You do need to put them on occasionally to make people think you're really doing something.
- STEP FOUR: Buy a cheap microphone. Sometimes you have to make an announcement, although nobody listens anyway.
- STEP FIVE: Don't be concerned about which songs you play and in what order. Hey, it's just Beach Music. Let the crowd sort out what songs they want to dance to.
- STEP SIX: If someone complains that the song is too fast or too slow, just say that someone else requested it to be played at that speed. Remember, that boom box doesn't have a pitch control...whatever that is!
- STEP SEVEN: When someone requests a song you don't have, don't worry. Just say, "Oh, I didn't bring that song tonight. I'll be sure to have it next time."
- STEP EIGHT: If you get bored while playing; bring a book or magazine to read. No need to watch the crowd and how they react to a song. Remember, it's just Beach Music.
- STEP NINE: Don't bother keeping up with what's being played elsewhere or by other DJ's. Just keep on playing the same old songs. You know how shaggers hate change.

STEP TEN:

Go ask all the people you know and any DJ you meet to make you some copies of the Beach Music they have. Pleading "poor-mouth" always helps and may get you a song or two to surprise the crowd with.

OK, that's it! You are now ready to go out into the Beach & Shag world and play yer butt off! Good luck! Until next time... See ya on the dance floor! BEACH MUSIC'S TOP 10 SONGS FOR July 2005

1. Build Me Up – Al Green
2. Hold On To The Blues – Lonnie Givens
3. Each & Every Kiss – Pat Carpenter Band
4. Summer Sunday – Nicolas Bearde
5. I Can't Go For That – Donnie Osmond
6. Special Kind of Love Dina Carrol
7. Way You Move - Outcast
8. Let's Get It On (2005 Shag Mix)-Marvin Gaye
9. Dixie Moon – Mark Roberts
10. Something Smooth – Rick Strickland

JR'S TOP PICKS FOR August 2005

Sweet Mama Do Right – Coastline / That Drum-O-Gum - MUBA / When Love Slips Away – Jay Proctor
Shoot That Moon – Downchild Blues Band / 96 Miles – Mississippi Hippies

NORTHERN VIRGINIA SHAG CLUB

EXCITING NEWS FOR NORTH CAROLINA... A message from Elizabeth Dalton, CSA member and Pro dancer about the NC Bill on the State Dance:

NC Senator Walter Dalton sponsored SB 128, making the Shag the Official State Popular Dance of North Carolina! While this bill has been introduced in previous years, it has never passed until now. If you would like to thank Senator Dalton for his efforts, email walterd@ncleg.net or call (919) 715-3038.

[Senator Walter Dalton is Elizabeth Daltons father. The Senator worked hard on the bill and was excited to be able to do this. It has been introduced several other times by other legislators and has never passed (mainly because of the large western part of the state - thus the reason for the state folk dance being included in the bill and all the history about the Shag in NC).

Please take time to thank Senator Dalton.

A Challenge to All Shaggers

Anonymous, from the Beach Shaggers of Birmingham newsletter

Of this earth there are many dances; and the dancers of these dances revel in them, and take them into themselves. But those of us who are shaggers know there is only one dance that can have the whole of us, our being; that can soothe us with simplicity, yet fire our hearts with meaning. In the groove, we tread lightly; more softly than our hearts are beating - when we are really in it for a dance, or for only an instant when our partner is with us and we are floating together in the slot and in the same feeling. It is then that we are one with Shag till we are dreaming it, this healing dream; that we would sleep forever, this dance, if we could.

The Shag was born of the sea; not of waves crashing on a shore, but of deep, smooth currents; and came ashore through crystal sands, was purified, anchored and settled in the sane - waiting. And then the music came; and young men, who wanted more, who needed more, were at the beach and heard the music and stomped in the sand where the dance was and stirred it; and the silicon in the sand eased their steps till they were sliding in the music and their movements became smooth, like the deep current; and watching eyes of young girls quickened; and they gave the young men their hands and followed them and The Shag became alive; and we all are in it now, as it is within us.

We know that The Shag is so much more than a dance. If you are true to it, and the way it makes you feel, then it must be a pathway of your life in the Family of Shaggers. For you will age, as I am aging; and you will disappear and become just a memory in some other shagger's mind. Yet your dance must survive you and live on for all generations. The future of Shag is up to you.

So cherish The Shag. Keep it pure. Resist the infiltration of other dances. Let other dances take from us; do not take from them. Always practice your craft. When you dance, let your countenance show your pleasure, your joy, for others are watching. Dance with them if they show interest. Take time to instruct. The smallest act on your part could plant a seed, to grow in them and blossom into a love for Shag. Do not be so absorbed with your own pleasure in The Dance that you forget, your higher cause should always be The Shag's survival - because there are just too few of us for it to have a long life without your most determined efforts. Take it with you when you travel - to the corners of the earth. Indoctrinate your children, your siblings, your friends. Speak of it to everyone you meet. Seek out converts. Praise; testify; cajole; beg, if you must.

All who inhabit this world are dancers through life, in a way. But the record playing for us is a 45, and it is damn short. Like our water and air, The Shag should be given a chance for pure survival. So do what you can. Just don't let the deejay pack up. Don't let the band stop playing. Just give us one more dance; one more Shag; one more SHAG, FOREVER.....

REMEMBER...

Don't be irreplaceable. If you can't be replaced, you can't be promoted. If you always tell the truth, you don't have to remember anything. Duct tape is like "the Force." It has a light side and a dark side and it holds the universe together.
