NORTHERN VIRGINIA SHAG CLUB

Shag Rag

MAY/JUNE 2021

Sun's out! Can dancing be far behind?

BY BONNIE ARMS

Spring has sprung. The weather has started being nice and folks are getting outside more than in the recent past because of COVID-19. There seems to be a light at the end of a long tunnel that is becoming brighter and brighter. Different states have issued different guidance. Northern Virginia Shag Club (NVSC) looks forward to dancing again sooner rather than later. I hope I can remember how to do a basic.

Memorial Day was May 31 this year. This is the day to remember the women and men that gave their all while serving in our Armed Forces. They defended our Country and made our freedom(s) possible. This day is different Veteran's Day which celebrates the service of all US Military veterans.

Father's Day is June 20. Please remember your fathers by ringing them up on the phone, sending them a text, or even visiting them if at all possible. My dad (Glenn William Rigg) passed April 15, 1968 and I miss him ever so much. I sure wish I could chat with him again.

SOS Spring Safari 2021 will be held in North Myrtle Beach (NMB) June 19-26. It will be a time of much fun reconnecting with fellow Shaggers, dancing (again), and of course there will be many an adult beverage enjoyed by all.

SOS Fall Migration 2021 will be held in NMB September 16-26 . I look forward to seeing lots of Shagging friends there.

The SOS at Sea 9 cruise is still scheduled for October 10-17. It sure will be fun cruising again.

There continues to be no classes or open dancing on Wednesday nights at the Elks Lodge 2188. The NVSC Board of Directors (BoD) continues to assess when we might get back to dancing. As soon as we know of course we will let everyone know when and where that will happen.

The NVSC BoD has decided that there will not be a 2021 Capital Shag Classic.

Please see the Shag Rag Calendar for upcoming events. Also please see the numerous Shag event flyers in this Shag Rag edition.

Myrtle Beach's historic Charlie's Place is now open for tours to the general public on Tuesdays.

The famed birthplace of 'the Shag' and motel once home to musical legends like Billie Holiday and Little Richard is rich with African-American history. It was fitting for tours to begin Tuesday, Feb. 2, the beginning of Black History Month.

"There's a lot of hidden gems that people don't know about. People who visit Myrtle Beach and even some of the residents who don't know the significance of this site, which has a very essential role to the civil rights movement and also the Jim Crow era," Myrtle Beach neighborhood services coordinator Freda Funnye said.

She is hosting the tours on Tuesdays and hopes to expand them after the most recent construction is finished. Funnye said tours are anytime between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. with up to three people. COVID-19 policy includes mask-wearing and social distancing.

"The site plays a major role in entrepreneurship. The music, the rhythm and blues that has also influenced a lot of the culture of African Americans. It also plays a major role in how race is perceived through music, and how we're able to come together through music," Funnye said of the importance of Charlie's Place to Myrtle Beach.

Funnye said by the second quarter of 2021 there should be four businesses using the incubator spaces of Charlie's Place. Right now, she said an advisory panel is reviewing applications, and will send finalists to the city council for approval.

The Fitzgerald House has completed phase one renovations, Funnye said, and organizations like the Grand Strand Humane Society have been using it as a meeting space. Motel units are also renovated.

Meredith Helline is the evening anchor for WMBF News. She anchors the 4:30, 5, 6 and 7 p.m. newscasts with Eric Weisfeld and solos the 7:30. She enterprises, writes and hosts the weekly Emmy-nominated good news series 'This is Carolina,' a series she started at the station in early 2018.

Black Lindy Hoppers Fund

Bridging the gap of knowledge, access and development for Black Lindy Hoppers.

The Black Lindy Hoppers Fund is a new independent program initiated by the Frankie Manning Foundation, supported by the Houston Swing Dance Society. Championed by Black leadership of the Lindy Hop community, it's mission is to provide assistance to established and developing dancers, musicians, researchers and community builders endeavoring to be of greater service to community members of African and African diasporic heritage.

We recognize the noted long standing obstacles of financial, administrative and mentorship support to black dancers participation, development and the intergenerational transfer of the critical heritage of Lindy Hop and Jazz Dance.

Through legacy building exchanges, mentorship facilitation and development, generative residencies, impact focused community building and stewardship we aim to galvanize the cultural core of Lindy Hop and recenter the gaze and presence of the African and African diasporic community towards this phenomenal cultural artifact.
